

CLIENT PROFILE

For more than 35 years, the Pleasanton Cultural Arts Council (PCAC), has supported the visual, literary, and performing arts and arts facilities. By collaborating with other arts organizations, civic partners, and those passionate about the arts, PCAC has reached thousands of school age children with outstanding arts education programs, provided one-time scholarships to emerging young artists, brought concert bands to the elementary and high schools, and helped provide arts facilities to the community.

SITUATIONAL ANALYSIS

Franklin Management Systems relationship with PCAC started in 2006 when Jack Harrington, founder and principal of FMS, was elected to the board in the role of Treasurer.

As a resident of Pleasanton, Jack is volunteering his knowledge and experience in nonprofits and community-based organizations, to ensure the Council continues to grow and enrich his home community.

Jack's role as Treasurer also includes overseeing nonprofit state and federal compliance, tax preparation, and audit response services.

PROCESS & SOLUTION

Franklin Management Systems serves as PCAC's out-sourced accounting department, managing all aspects of organizational finances and functions for grant generation and funding. By providing the systems to monitor, maintain and provide meaningful monthly reporting, PCAC's Board of Directors can focus their efforts on achieving the organization's goals and objectives.

RESULTS

Financially stable.
